$2500

Tom Pagnano Memorial Student Pilot Scholarships and the
Bob Meurer Memorial Advanced Rating Scholarships

Qualifications and Eligibility

Student: This scholarship is open to student pilots who have soloed by the application deadline. Previous awardees are not eligible.

Advanced: This scholarship is open to private pilots who wish to obtain an advanced rating such as Instrument, Commercial or CFI/CFII.

Scholarship recipients are responsible for paying for flight training themselves, and will receive scholarship funds on a reimbursement basis after providing acceptable receipts. These must be submitted within 1 year from the award date.

Applicants must:

- Reside and complete training within a 50nm radius of KRNO.
- Be current paid members of the Reno-Tahoe Aviation Group. Join in person at a RTAG meeting or online at www.renoaviation.org/membership-pricing
- All training must be completed with a certified flight instructor and/or FAA-approved flight training center device.
- Submit 3 copies of all pages of the application. No binders other than paper folders.
- Submit copies of their student or private pilot and medical certificates.
- Submit a copy of their last 6 months of logbook. For student applicants, this must show the solo flight endorsement.
- Submit a letter of recommendation from their CFI/CFII. If the applicant believes that a second letter from another non-family source would support their application, they may submit that also.
- Be willing to participate in an interview by phone, video or in person.
- Meet the criteria by the application deadline of April 20, 2026. If a check ride is scheduled, or the rating earned, prior to the award date, the applicant must notify RTAG.

Scholarships are presented at the annual Celebration of Aviation Banquet, May 30, 2026. Awardees are encouraged to attend as RTAG's guests.
